

Keeping the Wisconsin No Call list as strong as it is would be greatly appreciated because telemarketers have run roughshod over our freetime for too many years.

I have it set-up for myself, my elderly mother, and an uncle (who is in his upper 80's), and they certainly appreciate only getting calls from the companies that don't follow the law, although they could do without those too.